

1 Court that the stay is no longer warranted because an impasse has been reached in the mediation.
2 Informal exchanges of information shall continue, despite the stay. The parties request that the
3 November 20, 2006 status conference date be continued to the first week of December, 2006.
4 The parties will provide a further update to the Court following the next mediation session and 5 request a status conference upon completion of the discussions regardless of the outcome.
